

CLINTON J. DAVID

Clinton J. (“Clint”) David is the founder and managing shareholder of David, Goodman & Madole, a Professional Corporation, located in Dallas, Texas. Clint founded the Firm in 1984, and it has grown to a 14-lawyer, full-service firm. The Firm’s primary practice areas include business, commercial real estate, employment, commercial litigation, mortgage lending, mergers and acquisitions, trademark, intellectual property, securities, tax, and estate planning. Clint surrounds himself with, and the Firm consists of, aggressive large-firm trained attorneys who seek to provide efficient, goal-oriented, prompt and professional legal representation.

Clint is a fourth generation Dallas native. He graduated cum laude with a B.A. in 1977 from Kalamazoo College, Kalamazoo, Michigan. Clint was admitted to the Texas state bar in 1980 after graduating cum laude from Texas Tech University School of Law. While in law school, Clint served as the Lead Articles Editor of the Texas Tech Law Review, and he is a member of the Order of the Coif. Although Clint is an attorney by profession, he is first and foremost a businessman and entrepreneur. His business approach coupled with a “customer is always right” service mentality can be attributed as the main reason for the success of David, Goodman & Madole.

Clint is a director of First Mercantile Bank and is a member of the Bank’s Executive Committee. In addition, he is a member of (1) the Board of Trustees of Greenhill School (a private school in Dallas) and (2) the Board of Directors of Community Homes for Adults, Inc. (a private, non-profit organization serving mentally retarded adults from the Dallas and North Texas area). Clint is also a member of the CEO Network Group in Dallas.

Clint is a marathoner, weightlifter, and the lead singer in a group that performs locally in Dallas.
