

DONALD TERRY

The File Room was founded by Donald in 1978, as an offshoot of one of his storage and transportation companies. Off site storage retention of business records and computer media and their transportation and safekeeping has become an ever increasing service demanded by companies large and small. The File Room services the metropolitan Chicago area from ElkGrove Village (next to O'Hare Field), totalling over 1 million cubic feet; the warehouse features open rack hard copy shelving in excess of 20 feet high, temperature and humidity controlled vaults for computer media, X-rays microfilm and storage of backups and other sensitive materials and intricate alarm systems. Retrieval or pickup is available, 24 hours, 365 days a year on company owned vehicles with fully trained company personnel.

Donald holds a BBA in Economics from Milton College and has done graduate work at Northwestern University. He is a lifetime member of the Chicago CEO Club, a past president of the Executive's Guild, Ltd., an "exhausted rooster" and held many Jaycee board positions, along with board positions at a major Chicago hospital and various Chamber and homeowners groups.

A resident of Lincolnshire Illinois, Don has 3 grown children and he and his wife Davida have a 14 year old Jonathan Bradford. Don is an avid car collector and restorer of vehicles, His collection covers cars from 1922 to 1978. He enjoys tennis, swimming, trying to maintain his li'l Ponderosa and will go anywhere to take pictures.
