About Delhi

Delhi is a palimpsest, bearing the complexities, the contradictions, the beauty and the dynamism of a city where the past coexists with the present. Many dynasties ruled from here and the city is rich in the architecture of its monuments.

Delhi is just not just a city but a fascinating book-- a book which narrates the history of India. The city was built and destroyed seven times. It's a wonder that, seven times, this city went through the pain of being built, broken and rebuilt. The city has been witness to the various events which has brought India through the history books.

Today as the capital of India Delhi is the seat of administration and the monuments which tell the saga of a bygone era stand there. These icons are testimony to the grandeur of past and also an attraction for the tourists. Delhi is divided into two parts; First, the old Delhi or Delhi , which was one of the capitals of Muslim India between the 12th and 19th centuries. Old forts, mosques and monuments related to India's Muslim history are located here. Second, the New Delhi, which is the imperial city which was created as the capital by the British. It is spread over a wide area and is lined with imposing boulevards.

The charm of Delhi has attracted Emperors, Conquerors and poor in equally. It is correctly said that Delhi is a land of 'Dilwalas' or for people with heart. This phrase acquires a true colour when one goes around the lanes of Delhi. Delhi-- a window to the kaleidoscope that is India.

Delhi is a major travel gateway into India. It is one of India's busiest entry points for overseas airlines and is on the overland route access across Asia. Delhi is the second-largest metropolis in India with a population of 13 million, and with an extended metropolitan population of almost 22 million.

Stay at The Taj Mahal, Delhi

One of the most distinguished addresses in the national capital, The Taj Mahal Hotel is located in the exclusive residential area of Lutyens' Delhi , close to the seat of government. Reflecting the heritage of Mughal Delhi, this hotel offers graceful architecture with modern facilities.

The warm, pristine white lobby of The Taj includes design details reminiscent of Mughal architecture such as intricate motifs, golden inlay work, and niches from 'Shahjahanabad', the erstwhile mogul capital. The hotel is a veritable showcase of artifacts with the intricate design work of the lobby's domes and panels perfectly complimenting the calm marble fountain streams.

The warm and friendly staff takes care of all meetings with great attention. It has recently added personalised Butler Service on its Taj Club rooms and suites, where the butler plays the all-important role of guide and assistant. The Hotel offers the unique concept of a cyber butler who is available at all times.

They have 'Tejas' the Ayurvedic massage rooms at the hotel which offer traditional Ayurvedic massages and 'Sirodhara' treatments, therapies and day packages.

The hotel is a city landmark, centrally located, in close proximity to key areas.

The Taj Mahal Hotel has been awarded the 5 Star Diamond Award by the American Academy of Hospitality.
