JOE MANCUSO

The CEO CLUBS world President offer his welcoming remarks and introduced the club famous concept “CEOs Making Money And Having Fun While Learning”

---

The founder of the 33 year old not-for-profit Chief Executive Officers Clubs (CEO Clubs), Joe Mancuso is the entrepreneur's entrepreneur. The CEO Clubs is composed of CEO's running businesses with about $20,000,000 of average annual sales. The club has over 15,000 current active members. Mancuso is undoubtedly best known as an author. His books and tapes have been heard or read by more small business people than those of any other management author, according to Simon & Schuster. Joe holds an Electrical Engineering degree from WPI and an MBA from the Harvard Business School. His Doctorate is from Boston University in Educational Administration

HON.

JOSE “PEPE” DIAZ

---

A prestigious public servant from Miami Dade County chosen by the Minority Chamber of Commerce as "Miami Dade Commissioner of the Decade". Hon. Diaz will offer the audience excellent tips about the Miami – Dade County and the opportunities it offers.

---

Commissioner Diaz serves in various capacities on different committees of the County Commission. He is vice-chair of the Airport and Seaport Committee, and also is a member of the Government Operations Committee, the Health, Public Safety and Intergovernmental committee and the State Intergovernmental Affairs subcommittee. The commissioner is also the chairman of the Tourist Development Council and serves as the chairman of the Board of Directors of the Miami-Dade County Sports Commission, which is charged with attracting youth, adult amateur, and professional sporting events to the county and engendering support for those events. Additionally, Commissioner Diaz, who proudly served as a member of the U.S. Marine Corps, was re-appointed as Miami-Dade County's Military Liaison. The commissioner was also appointed by Chairman Dennis C. Moss to the Dade League of Cities.

DOCTORA

ELISA "LILITA" CARRIO

Dr. Carrió has a unique vision of Latin America. After listening to her, entrepreneurs will gain in comprehension and will be able to make decisions based on a clear view originated in the analysis of what is perhaps the person who best understands the politics and the economics of the region. She is currently a member of the Congress and is running for President in the 2011 elections.

Elisa Carrió was born in 1956. She finished her elementary and secondary education in the Province of Chaco. She received her law degree from the National University del Nordeste in 1978 and a doctorate in Public Law (Ph.D.) from the National University del Litoral. Since the beginning, her work has been focused on the construction of a Republic that cannot exist without a democratic system, as no democracy is possible without justice and truth. In October 2005 she was elected to Congress as National Deputy from the City of Buenos Aires, with twenty percent of the votes as the Support for an Egalitarian Republic Party (ARI) candidate. Ms. Carrió is the General Coordinator of the Hanna Arendt Institute for Political and Cultural Studies that she founded in 2004 and has already received over 4,000 students. In 2003, as candidate of the newly created ARI Party, Ms. Carrió was the first female presidential candidate that won nearly three million votes in Argentine history. The vice-presidential candidate of the ticket, Gustavo Gutiérrez, was a member of the commission headed by Ms. Carrió that investigated money-laundering allegations in Argentina.
