

DODEE FROST CROCKETT

Dodee Frost Crockett is a First Vice President and Senior Financial Consultant in the Merrill Lynch Premier Place office in Dallas. She manages over $400 million dollars for individuals, corporations and nonprofit organizations. Dodee accepts new clients on a referral basis only from a national network of accountants, attorneys and other professionals as well as her existing clients.

Dodee regularly teaches advanced training classes at Merrill Lynch's Corporate Campus in Princeton, New Jersey. In addition, she provides ongoing education to her clients and community in the areas of worldwide investing, charitable gifting, cash management and estate planning.

Dodee currently serves on the Boards of the Dallas Opera and the Ronald McDonald House. She has been with Merrill Lynch for over nineteen years and has been featured in articles in industry trade publications as well as TIME magazine where she discussed global investing. Dodee attended Southern Methodist University and has lived in Dallas over 25 years. She has served as a committee member for the New York Stock Exchange, an arbitrator for the National Association of Securities Dealers and is currently listed in Who's Who of American Women.

Financial Planning on Wall Street magazine named Dodee as one of the "Ten Best Brokers in America" in 1995.
