

MARTIN LANDIS

The founder and managing member of Landwin LLC Real Estate Advisors, Martin Landis has experience that extends over 25 years and $700 million of diverse income-producing real estate projects and other successful business ventures. His diverse background, which includes the development and redevelopment of residential, office, industrial and retail real estate, provides him with the knowledge and experience to identify and resolve challenges associated with income-producing property investment and management.

Landwin LLC Real Estate Advisors is a privately held real estate investment and asset management company that acquires and manages income producing property for high-net worth individuals and institutional clients. Landwin currently manages 12 retail properties and over 2.5 million square feet of gross leasable area in the western and southeastern U.S. Martin Landis, as an investor and asset advisor, oversees every aspect of acquisitions, asset management and dispositions.

After graduating from Hofstra University and IBM Corporation Institute, Martin Landis began his business career with the founding of DL Blair Corporation, the largest marketing company in the United States. He was Chairman/CEO of Prosher Corporation, a publicly traded company, and was also the General Partner of DMR investments, a real estate development and acquisition company. He is an arbitrator on the Board of Arbitrators of the National Association of Security Dealers and a member of the International Council of Shopping Centers.
